

ACOULINE STANDARD DESK MOUNTED SCREENS

SKU: AP-MSSDKMNTSCREEN

Designed to bring privacy and acoustic comfort to open-plan offices, Acouline Standard Desk Mounted Screens provide a clean and practical solution for modern workstations. Positioned neatly on the desktop, these acoustic panels help reduce visual and noise distractions while maintaining a collaborative workspace feel.

Available in a choice of 12mm or 24mm thicknesses and 300mm, 400mm, or 600mm heights, the screens come in widths to suit 1200mm, 1500mm, and 1800mm desktops. Multiple mounting options allow seamless integration across a wide range of desk systems and workstation layouts.

Featuring soft radial corners and a refined minimalist design, Acouline Desk Mounted Screens combine functionality with contemporary styling to create quieter, more focused work environments.
