

ACOULINE WALL PANEL - ORIGINAL

SKU: AP-MSWPORIG

Showcasing the authentic texture and character of the material, Acouline Wall Panels in the Original pattern offer a clean and understated acoustic solution for modern interiors. The natural eco-panel finish delivers a simple yet refined aesthetic that blends effortlessly into a wide range of commercial spaces.

Designed to absorb sound and reduce echo, Acouline Wall Panels help create quieter, more comfortable environments with improved speech clarity across offices, meeting rooms, breakout spaces, and reception areas. The minimalist surface design allows the texture of the panel itself to become a subtle architectural feature.

Combining sustainable-inspired aesthetics with effective acoustic performance, Acouline Wall Panels in the Original pattern provide a versatile solution for enhancing both workplace comfort and interior design.
